Cleveland Clinic Quarterly

Published by

The Medical Staff of the Cleveland Clinic

CLEVELAND, OHIO

Vol. 1 APRIL, 1932 No. 2

CONTENTS

Blood Chemistry and the Gastrointestinal Tract, Russell L. Haden 3

Interparietal Hernias, William E. Lower and N. Fred Hicken 9

Tumor of the Spinal Cord Associated with Bilateral Tumors, W. James Gardner 31

The Ductless Glands as they Appertain to Eye Diseases and to Surgery, Albert D. Ruedemann 41

An Analysis of 1347 Cases of Malignant Tumors of the Breast with Special Reference to Management and End-Results, George W. Crile 49

The Filament-Nonfilament Count, William V. Mullin and Gordon C. Large 59

The Comparative Values of Retrograde and Intravenous Urography, Bernard H. Nichols 79

Solitary Cysts of the Kidney, Charles Clair Higgins 83

Recent Advances in the Treatment of Peptic Ulcer, John Tucker 99

A Case of Thallium Poisoning Following the Prolonged Use of a Depilatory Cream, Wallace S. Duncan and Edward H. Crosby 113

Toxic Hepatitis Due to Cinchophen. A Report of Three Cases, Gordon A. Winfield 119