THE CLINICAL PICTURE

Painful eye with a facial rash

Six days ago, the patient had an intense headache; 4 days ago, painful herpetiform lesions appeared on his face. What is the diagnosis?

J.L. VALLEJO-GARCÍA, S. VAÑO-GALVÁN, O. RAYWARD, AND P. MORENO-MARTIN

A 48-year-old man with uncontrolled diabetes

His type 2 diabetes has been well controlled for 6 years. Now, his blood sugar levels have been rising for the past week, and he has large amounts of glucose and ketones in the urine. What has happened?

M. HU AND J.H. ISAACSON

Alternative modes of mechanical ventilation:

A review for the hospitalist

Newer ventilators can be set to modes other than the pressure-control and volume-control modes of older machines. We review how they work and contrast their theoretical benefits and actual evidence of benefit.
