FROM THE EDITOR

Evidence, limes, and cement 7

Sometimes, the results of clinical trials do not immediately affect what physicians do because the results do not jibe with experience.

B.F. Mandell

COMMENTARIES

Vertebroplasty, cognitive dissonance, and evidence-based medicine: What do we do when the ‘evidence’ says we are wrong? 8

Two recent trials call into question the efficacy of vertebroplasty for treating osteoporotic vertebral compression fractures and are leading many of us to question our assumptions about vertebroplasty.

R.D. Orr

CURRENT DRUG THERAPY

Acetaminophen: Old drug, new warnings 19

Often, patients overdose because they take more than one acetaminophen product and are unaware that both products contain the drug.

A. Schilling, R. Corey, M. Leonard, and B. Eghtesad

THE CLINICAL PICTURE

Lesions on the hands, high aminotransferase levels 34

A 64-year-old man presents with a 10-day history of painful vesicles and erosions on the dorsa of the hands that appeared after sun exposure. What is the diagnosis?

M. Gil-Mosquera, S Váñó-Galván, R. Gomez-Guerra, P. Jaén, and M. Gil-Mosquera

Myelodysplastic syndromes: 37
A practical approach to diagnosis and treatment
The myelodysplastic syndromes are clonal bone marrow disorders that lead to underproduction of normal blood cells. Primary care physicians tend to be the first to identify the problem.

1-MINUTE CONSULT ......................................................................................
Should we routinely screen for hypercapnea in sleep apnea patients before elective noncardiac surgery? 60
Yes. Obesity hypoventilation syndrome is often undiagnosed and greatly increases perioperative risk.
