TABLE OF CONTENTS

FROM THE EDITOR
COPD: More options mean potentially better control
Although newer drugs can improve control, to make the biggest impact on mortality we need to wage war on smoking.
B.F. MANDELL

1-MINUTE CONSULT
Do patients who received only two doses of hepatitis B vaccine need a booster?
They should get one. However, two doses may be enough in healthy younger adults.
A. JUNEWICZ, A. BRATEANU, AND C. NIELSEN

THE CLINICAL PICTURE
Encephalopathy despite thiamine repletion during alcohol withdrawal
When managing a patient with chronic alcohol abuse who is beginning to withdraw, expect the unexpected.
N.D. CRESCE, K.A. McMANUS, C.D. SIFRI, AND B.B. WILSON

IMAGING IN PRACTICE
Role of imaging in endometriosis
Transvaginal ultrasonography and magnetic resonance imaging confirm the diagnosis and guide surgical treatment.
G. LO MONTE, J.M. WENGERT, P. PETIGNAT, AND R. MARCI

CONTINUED ON PAGE 331
Why study cardiovascular outcomes in type 2 diabetes?

Patent foramen ovale and stroke: Unanswered questions

Allowing higher blood pressure in the frail elderly

Sleep apnea ABCs: Airway, breathing, circulation

Victims of intimate partner violence: How to help

New-onset epilepsy in the elderly: Meeting the challenges

Perioperative beta-blockers: Evolving evidence

Diagnostic urgency: Statin-induced myopathy

Prescribing for the pregnant patient
Key concepts to consider and practical advice for choosing the safest possible drug treatments.

N. Mehta, K. Chen, and R.O. Powrie

Chronic obstructive pulmonary disease: An update for the primary physician
COPD has seen several changes in its assessment and treatment in recent years, reflecting advances in our understanding.

U. Hatipoğlu and L.S. Abousouan

CME Calendar

Letters to the Editor
Readers comment on managing insulin before surgery (November 2013), a CME test question regarding treating hypertension in the elderly (December 2013), preventing stress ulcer in hospitalized patients (January 2014), and assessing albuminuria (January 2014).

Directions for taking CME tests online
To receive CME credit, read any or all of the CME-certified articles in this issue (those that carry the CME logo), then go to www.ccjm.org to take the test for the article or articles you select. It should take up to 1 hour to complete the activity for each article.
Release date: June 1, 2014
Expiration date: May 31, 2015